LEGISLATIVE STATUS OFFICE (202) 225-1772

The information available includes status of legislation in House and Senate and dates of committee hearings that have already taken place (not a schedule of future hearings).

Federal law makes these provisions for vacancies:

The President - Vice President becomes President.

The Vice President - The President nominates a Vice President who must be confirmed by majority vote of both houses of Congress. The legal order of succession after Vice President is Speaker of the House of Representatives, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, members of the Cabinet in a specified order beginning with the Secretary of State.

New York State law makes these provisions for vacancies:

US Senate - The Governor appoints someone to the office until the vacancy can be filled at a general election.

US House of Representatives - Depending upon date, vacancies are filled at a special election or the next general election.

Mayoral Election included in Village Election

There are 64 Villages with their own elected officials within Nassau County. Each village board is responsible for local legislation, licensing, and zoning ordinances. In a few instances, villages have their own police departments. In unincorporated communities, special districts have been created to provide varied services. In some instances, districts are administered by the town in which they are located; in others, a locally elected board of commissioners oversees the district.
